RULE 13.

Duties of Secretary.

It shall be among the duties of the Secretary—

(a) to administer the funds placed at the disposal of the Representative Body in accordance with the provisions in the Budget accepted by the Representative Body;

(b) to keep and maintain the records relating to the business of the Representative Body; and

(c) to make arrangements for meetings of the Representative Body and the Committees.

Rule 13 was read and passed.

CHAPTER V.

HONOURABLE MR. A. THANU PILLAI: The numbers in the Rules will have to undergo alteration later.

MR. V. O. MARKOS: That is because we have deleted one rule. At the end we will re-number the whole thing.

MR. PRESIDENT: The rules will be re-numbered after all the Rules are passed.

RULE 14.

Business of the Representative Body.

14. (1) The business of the Representative Body means the business conducted—

(i) in the Representative Body itself;
(ii) in the Committee of the whole Representative Body;
(iii) in the Advisory Committee referred to in Rule 34;
(iv) in the Standing Committee referred to in Rule 36; and
(v) in such other Committees or sub-committees as may be set up by the Representative Body or the Advisory Committee or the Standing Committee.

(2) The business of the Representative Body shall be conducted in Trivandrum unless the Representative Body resolves otherwise.

(3) The conduct of the business of the Representative Body and the procedure thereof shall be regulated by the Rules and Standing Orders and the resolutions of the Representative Body and by the rulings given from time to time by the Chairman.

MR. P. S NATARAJA PILLAI (Trivandrum V—General): Sir, I have given notice of an amendment to Rule 14. I request the permission of the Chair to with-hold this amendment for the time being and to take it up after Rule 34 comes up for discussion which is a substantive proposition.

MR. P. S. NATARAJA PILLAI: In Rule 14, sub-rule (1), omit clause (iii).
